Dear ABRAHIM A KABA,

Thank you for your interest in coming to Canada. I have reviewed your temporary resident visa (visitor visa) application and supporting documentation to assess whether you meet the requirements for a visitor visa (<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/visit-canada/eligibility.html>). This includes assessing whether you are coming to Canada temporarily for the reason(s) you describe in your application. I have determined that your application does not meet the requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/I-2.5/index.html>) and Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations (IRPR) (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/sor-2002-227/index.html>). I am refusing your application.

- I am not satisfied that you will leave Canada at the end of your stay as required by paragraph 179(b) of the IRPR (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/SOR-2002-227/section-179.html>). I am refusing your application because you have not established that you will leave Canada, based on the following factors:
- Your assets and financial situation are insufficient to support the stated purpose of travel for yourself (and any accompanying family member(s), if applicable).
- The purpose of your visit to Canada is not consistent with a temporary stay given the details you have provided in your application.
- Your immigration status outside your country of nationality or habitual residence.
- You have limited employment possibilities in your country of residence.

To get help with understanding your temporary resident application refusal and what you can do next, visit: <https://www.cic.gc.ca/visit-visiter/en/refusal-visa-application>.

Next Steps:

- If you decide to apply again, know that:
 - your new application will be assessed on its own merits,
 - you must resubmit a new application and all relevant supporting documents and pay a new temporary resident application fee, and
 - your new application may be refused unless it is supported by new or different information that would satisfy the officer that you meet all application requirements.
